

Online access for society members (2024)

As a participant of The Oceanographic Society of Japan, you are entitled to free access of electronic contents from Journal of Oceanography on SpringerLink. To access this secured content, please activate your access rights following the instructions below:

[Step 1]

Please go to <http://link.springer.com/> and click on "Log in" on the top right hand of the page.

[Step 2]

- If you already have an account with Springer, please enter your account details and log in.
- If you do not yet have an account, please create one (enter your email address and click "Continue")

[Step 3]

When successfully logged in, you should see "Account" where "Log in" used to be. Please click on the "Manage account" option under the "Account" button and click "Linked institutions" from the list on the left.

[Step 4]

Please copy and paste the association code in the input field, and click on the "Link institution" button:
You should see a message informing you of your new access details.

You will not need to enter the association code again for 2024 access; simply log in with your email address and password.

I forgot my existing Password? To initiate a password reset, go to the login screen and click on 'Forgotten password.' Next, select 'Send reset instructions.' Check your email for a message containing detailed steps on how to reset your password. Follow these instructions to complete the password reset procedure.

If you have any questions about this process, please contact: onlineservice@springer.com.
